

Product designer (m/f)

DAREBELL rents and creates automated, fully furnished flats for a liberated, cool lifestyle. We are ready to become and convinced that we will be the best in the world. DAREBELL employees are rock stars in their area. They deliver above-average work, and celebrate successes. You now have the opportunity to become one of them!

ABOUT YOU ...

- > You want to be the best in what you do.
- > You are a cool, laid-back, and courageous type (m / f).
- > You are not a follower. Your ideas and your designs move others.
- > You are currently in training (in product or industrial design) or you have completed your training, and you have already gained experience in the field of interior or construction.
- > You have a very strong sense of aesthetics and room design. You love creating and combining furniture.
- > You bring technical and logical understanding with you.
- > You are well-versed in the use of design programmes (Adobe) and planning tools (CAD software).
- > You enjoy working with the widest range of materials.
- > You work independently, responsibly, and solution-oriented.
- > You are keen to succeed together, and you are ready to go the extra mile for this.

THIS WOULD BE COOL...

- > 3D visualisation and representation skills
- > manual skills for prototype building
- > an interest in neuropsychology

WHAT TO EXPECT ...

Developing and implementing innovative furniture and room concepts with a wow effect:
